- (iii) Subject to paragraph (ii), references to any provisions of any enactment or of any subordinate legislation (as defined within section 21(1) of the Interpretation Act 1978) include any modification or re-enactment of the provisions for the time being in force; and
- (iv) Headings are inserted for convenience only and do not affect the construction of these Articles.

Article 2 Membership

- 2.1 The subscribers to the Memorandum and such bodies as are admitted to membership in accordance with the Articles shall be members of the Company (hereinafter referred to as "Members").
- 2.2 Any properly constituted Boxing club based in Scotland which undertakes to accept the provisions of the Memorandum and the Articles and to abide by the Regulations, all Bye Laws and the AIBA Regulations shall be eligible to apply for membership.
- 2.3 All applications for membership shall require to be in writing and in such form as the Executive Board may require. Applications for membership shall require to be signed by the honorary secretary of the Club and shall be accompanied by a copy of its constitution and rules, which shall be in accordance with these Articles and the AIBA Regulations, a list of its office bearers and a list of its members with addresses. All applications shall be sent to the Executive Board whose decision shall be final.
- 2.4 The privileges of membership shall not be transferable.
- 2.5 All Members must have ownership or secure rights of access to suitably equipped accommodation for boxing so as to enable practical boxing instruction to be provided on at least two sessions each week.
- 2.6 All Members must keep proper Club books, including a membership roll, a Club bank account and bank cash books, all of which will be required to be provided on request at any time to the Executive Board or the relevant District Committee. Any payments to or from the Club must be made by way of the Club bank account. To avoid doubt, both the District Committee and the Executive Board shall have the power to investigate the affairs of and visit any Member to ensure compliance with: these Articles; Bye Laws and the Regulations.
- 2.7 Members, District Committees and individual members of Members are required to comply with the terms of the Company's insurance policies and any instruction issued by the Company.
- 2.8 Each Member, District Committee and member of a Member shall be bound by and shall abide by these Articles of Association, the AIBA Regulations, any rules imposed on the Company by the main body investor, Sports Scotland (as changed from time to time) and any Byelaws or the Regulations made under the powers given in the Memorandum and Articles of the Company as well as any codes of conduct, disciplinary procedures and rules which may be adopted from time to time by the Board. Any failure by any such individual, member Club or District Association so to act will render such an individual, member Club, or District Association liable to be treated as having been guilty of Misconduct in terms of Article 19, and they may therefore be subject to disciplinary proceedings.

2.9 Any Member shall cease to be a member of the Company and their name shall be removed from the register of Members accordingly, subject to the undertaking provided for in Clause 6 of the Memorandum if:-

- (i) the Member resigns from membership by notice in writing given to the Chief Operating Officer and/or Executive Board;
- (ii) the Member's annual subscription remains unpaid after 31st December next following the date when it became due, and the Executive Board resolves that such membership be terminated;
- (iii) the Member is expelled from membership by the Executive Board in accordance with Article 21.

2.10 It shall be the option of the District Committee or the Executive Board to visit any Club on reasonable notice to ensure compliance with membership requirements. To avoid doubt, the members of a District Committee shall take full responsibility for compliance within their District.

Article 3 Subscription

3.1 Each Member shall pay a subscription annually or otherwise as may be determined from time to time by the Executive Board. Annual subscriptions shall be due by 31st July immediately prior to the Annual General Meeting in each year. The annual subscriptions shall be due by any Member who has not given written notice of resignation prior to the Annual General Meeting after the relevant 31st July. Failure to make payment by the relevant 31st July and submit fully completed affiliation forms shall result in the defaulting Member being barred from participating in and benefiting from any of the activities of the Company and/or the District of which the Club is a member until such time as the monies due are paid to the Company and all forms are completed properly and in their entirety. In addition it shall be the option of the Executive Board to determine that the registration of any boxer/official of the Member in default be transferred to any other Member at the request of the boxer/official provided that the Executive Board are satisfied that the default has not arisen merely as a result of an oversight.

- (i) Minutes of the last Annual General Meeting
- (ii) Chairman's Report;
- (iii) Executive Board's Annual Report;
- (iv) Financial Report, the accounts and balance sheet and the fixing of the annual subscription;
- (v) Motions on the Agenda. A motion which is ruled incompetent, or irrelevant, shall not be voted upon;
- (vi) Any other competent business. It shall be competent for any delegate, at the discretion of the Chairman, to raise any point of boxing interest either to inquire for information or to provoke discussion, but not calling for the decision of the meeting to be expressed by vote;
- (vii) Election of Honorary President and President.

13.3 All motions for consideration must be forwarded and received by the Executive Board via the Chief Operating Officer no later than one month before the Annual General Meeting. Every Motion will be ruled competent unless the majority of membership of the Executive Board consider it incompetent, and such decision will be announced to the Annual General Meeting. The Agenda will be circulated no later than 7 days in advance of the Annual General Meeting.

13.4 Only matters on the Agenda shall be voted upon.

13.5 A copy of the Notice convening the Annual General Meeting, including the agenda, together with a copy of the accounts and balance sheet for the past season shall be forwarded by the Chief Operating Officer to the secretary of each Member not less than seven days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting.

13.6 In accordance with Section 313(1) of the 2006 Act, the accidental omission to give notice of a General Meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a General Meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

13.7 No amendment to the Company's Memorandum or Articles of Association shall be made unless by means of a Special Resolution passed at a General Meeting or the Annual General Meeting by not less than three quarters of the Members present entitled to vote and voting.

Article 14 General Meetings

14.1 The Executive Board shall convene a General Meeting at any time at the request of the majority of the Executive Board or on receiving a requisition to that effect signed by the secretaries of at least ten percent of the Members having at the time of the requisition a right to vote at General Meetings. It shall be permitted for the Executive Board to withhold the requisition if it is deemed to be incompetent or unclear until such time as a competently clear object can be achieved through correspondence with the proposers.

14.2 Subject to 14.1, such meeting shall be held not less than 14 days nor more than 21 days after the receipt of the requisition which shall state the object of the meeting, and no business other than that stated on the requisition shall be transacted at the meeting.

14.3 The Executive Board shall decide the date and venue of any such meeting.

Article 15 Executive Board Meetings

15.1 The Executive Board shall have the power to decide how many Executive Board Meetings are held throughout the year in line with their duties under the Act. Such meetings may be held by telephone providing there is the technological equipment in situ to allow for such attendance.

15.2 A copy of the minute of each Executive Board meeting shall be forwarded to the secretary of each Member or made publicly available as soon as the same are ratified.

Article 16 Quorum

16.1 The Quorum at Annual General Meetings shall be delegates from Seventeen Members, at Executive Board Meetings in accordance with Article 6.7, and at Committee or Sub-Committee Meetings three members, for the transaction of any business. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the following week, at the same time and (or at such other place as the Board may determine) and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present, with entitlement to vote, shall be entitled to hold the meeting and vote on the business to be conducted thereat.

Article 17 Voting

17.1 Voting at all meetings, except Annual General Meetings, shall be by show of hands, or, if demanded by not less than two-thirds of the Members present, by ballot unless a higher majority is otherwise required by the Act. At Annual General Meetings, voting shall be by ballot. In the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a Casting Vote in addition to his vote as a Member. Voting by proxy shall be permitted. The appointment of a proxy shall not, however, preclude a Member from attending and speaking at the (Annual) General Meeting concerned. The withdrawal of a proxy may only take place 48 hours before a meeting is held. The appointment of a proxy shall be executed in such a manner as the Board may determine. A vote is given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy and shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, provided that no intimation in writing of the death, insanity or revocation as aforesaid shall have been received at the administrative offices of the Company before the commencement of the General Meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used. The proxy appointment shall be deemed to confer authority to vote on any amendment of a motion for resolution put to the General Meeting for which it is given as the proxy thinks fit. The proxy appointment shall, unless it provides to the contrary, be valid for any adjournment of the meeting as well as for the meeting to which it relates.

17.2 Voting at all General Meetings shall be on the basis of One Member – One Vote notwithstanding the number of delegates representing each Member.

17.3 Any motion put for Ordinary Resolution shall be passed by a simple majority of the Voting Members present and voting at the meeting, unless the Act specifies that the resolution shall be passed as a Special resolution in which case it shall be passed by a majority of not less than 75% or as amended under the Act.

Article 18 Election and Appointment Processes

18.1 The election and appointment processes adopted by Boxing Scotland hereunder and by each Club must prevent any and all external interference in the election and appointment processes.

18.2 The election process must be approved by AIBA.

18.3 Any person elected or appointed by a Club or as an Officer who is not elected or appointed in compliance with this article shall not be recognized by Boxing Scotland or AIBA.

- 18.4 Decisions passed by bodies that have not been elected or appointed in accordance with this article shall not be recognized by Boxing Scotland or AIBA.

Article 19 Elections

- 19.1 The election of a candidate as President or the appointment of any other Executive Committee member shall be set aside on any of the following grounds:
- a) That there was failure to conduct the election in accordance with the provisions of the Articles and/or the AIBA Statutes and/or local laws that the non-compliance and failure affected the result of the election in a substantial manner.
 - b) That a person other than the one elected purportedly won the election.
 - c) That an illegal practice was committed in connection with the election by the candidate personally or with his or her knowledge and consent or approval.
 - d) That the candidate was at the time of his or her election not qualified or was disqualified.
 - e) That there was external interference in the election process.
 - f) That there was a failure to comply with the AIBA Code of Ethics in conducting the election.
- 19.2 Boxing Scotland must submit the results of any election of officers and the organisational structure of the Federation to AIBA for final approval and recognition.

Article 20 Delegates to Boxing Scotland Limited

- 20.1 Any delegate representing a Member must be at least 18 years of age and cannot be a boxer currently active in AOB, APB or WSB.
- 20.2 A delegate to the Company must be a member of the Club they represent and have paid all subscription monies due to that Club.
- 20.3 The honorary secretary of a Member shall be one of the Club's three accredited delegates to the Company. An active boxer or second shall not be the accredited delegate of a Member to the Company.
- 20.4 A delegate to the Company shall not second a boxer except with the prior sanction of the Executive Board.
- 20.5 The Executive Board shall have power to reject or cancel the appointment of any particular delegate or delegates of any Member to the Company upon written confirmation of their reason(s).

Article 21 Infringement of the Articles of Association or Regulations

- 21.1 Each Member on admission to membership of the Company and their members thereof shall be bound by the Memorandum, Articles, Regulations and Bye Laws of the Company and shall on application be supplied with copies as available of the same.
- 21.2 The Executive Board or appropriate District Committee shall have the power to censure, suspend or expel any Member or member of a Member in the event of the Member or member of a Member not conforming to the Articles, Regulations and Bye-laws of the Company or if the Member be conducted, or Member conduct himself, in a manner considered to be detrimental to the credit and interest of the Company or attempts to obtain redress through any outside channel in any matter capable of being dealt with under the Articles and Bye-laws of the Company.

- 21.3 To avoid doubt, any and all disciplinary actions shall be taken in line with the disciplinary policies in place from time to time.

Article 22 Bye-Laws

- 22.1 The Executive Board have power to make, revoke or amend Bye-laws of the Company but these shall not come into effect until approved by a majority vote at a General Meeting of the Company.
- 22.2 Bye-laws can competently be made regarding any matter falling within the objects of the Company as set out in the Memorandum.
- 22.3 Following any amendment to the AIBA Statutes or Bylaws, Boxing Scotland shall update these Articles to ensure that it complies fully with the AIBA Statutes and Bylaws.

Article 23 Appeals

- 23.1 Every Member or a member of a Member, or a member of Executive Board or of a committee thereof expelled, suspended, or otherwise aggrieved, shall have the right of appeal.
- 23.2 The order of appeal shall be to the next immediate layer of authority.
- 23.3 Final appeal lies to the Executive Board of the Company, whose decision shall be binding on all parties concerned, unless reversed by the Annual General Meeting of the Company.

Article 24 Dispute Resolution

- 24.1 The Memorandum, Articles, Regulations and Bye-laws are binding, but the Executive Board shall have power to decide and determine:-
- (i) Any dispute regarding the interpretation thereof;
 - (ii) Any matter not provided for therein
- 24.2 Such decision will be effective forthwith, but must be placed on the Agenda of the next Executive Board Meeting of the Company for ratification.

Article 25 Court of Arbitration

- 25.1 Boxing Scotland recognizes the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS), with headquarters in Lausanne, Switzerland, as the authority to resolve appeals against decisions made in accordance with the World Anti-Doping Code only. Each Association must recognize CAS as an independent judicial authority but, in this regard, in accordance with the World Anti-Doping Code only. Boxing Scotland, Boxers and Officials must comply with the decisions passed by CAS.
- 25.2 Boxing Scotland recognizes the jurisdiction of CAS in relation to any dispute covered by Rule 59 of the Olympic Charter, Boxing Scotland, Boxers and Officials must comply with the decisions passed by CAS in relation to disputes covered by Rule 59 of the Olympic Charter.

Article 26 Autonomy

26.1 Boxing Scotland shall be an autonomous body and shall resist pressures of all kind from any government or other authority.

Article 27 Equality

27.1 The Executive Board is committed to the promotion of equality of opportunity in all fields.

27.2 The Executive Board strives to be an equal opportunities employer – intends that no job applicant or employee shall receive less favorable treatment on the grounds of gender, marital or family status, age, disability, ethnic origin, creed, sexual orientation, trade union membership or by any other condition or requirement which cannot be shown to be justifiable. The Executive Board opposes all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination.

27.3 The Executive Board understands its responsibility to promote sports equity. The Executive Board will ensure that all employees will be helped and encouraged to achieve their potential and will be treated fairly and with respect.

Article 28 Indemnity

28.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a member of the Executive Board may otherwise be entitled, every such member or other officer or member of the Executive Board or professional advisor of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the court from liability for.
