Membership Conditions

- Boxer Welfare and Health & Safety

Boxing Scotland is committed to upholding the highest standards of boxer welfare, health, and safety. In line with this commitment, we shall not sanction or recognise dual membership with any non-recognised, unregulated, and unlicensed boxing organisations. Such organisations operate outside the established safety protocols and regulatory frameworks that are essential for the protection of boxers' well-being.

- Importance of Insurance Coverage

A crucial aspect of safeguarding our members is ensuring that all boxers, coaches, and officials are covered by appropriate insurance. Membership with Boxing Scotland includes comprehensive insurance coverage, which extends to participation in events sanctioned by other recognised national governing bodies. This coverage is designed to protect against injury and liability, providing peace of mind to all involved. Engaging with non-recognised, unregulated, and unlicensed organisations can void this essential coverage, leaving individuals vulnerable to significant risks.

- Prohibition of Dual Membership

To maintain the integrity of our sport and to safeguard our members, any individual who seeks or holds membership with Boxing Scotland is expressly prohibited from holding concurrent membership with any non-recognised, unregulated, and unlicensed boxing organisations. This prohibition extends to participation in, coaching, officiating, or any other involvement in activities associated with such organisations.

- Disciplinary Actions

Any member found in breach of this policy shall be subject to Boxing Scotland's disciplinary procedures. This may result in sanctions including, but not limited to, suspension, expulsion from membership, and disqualification from participating in Boxing Scotland-sanctioned events. The severity of the disciplinary action will be determined based on the nature of the violation and its impact on boxer welfare, health, and safety.

- Commitment to Compliance

All members are required to adhere to this policy as a condition of their membership with Boxing Scotland. By complying with this policy, members contribute to our ongoing efforts to maintain the highest standards of safety, welfare, and professionalism within the sport of boxing in Scotland.
